

Name: _____

Teacher: _____

A thinking and writing exercise!

Directions:

Think of an apple. Then write your answers on this paper. Use these ideas to write an interesting expository story about an apple on a separate paper. Use correct conventions and a minimum of five complete sentences.

Name 2 or 3 things that...

1. are heavier than an apple.
2. are lighter than an apple.
3. are rounder than an apple.
4. are harder than an apple.
5. are smaller than an apple.
6. have a thicker skin than an apple.
7. could hide under an apple.
8. could eat an apple.

Rubric:

Exceeds _ _ Excellent conventions, at least five complete sentences.

Meets _ _ 3 - 5 grammar or spelling mistakes, five complete sentences.

Approach_ _ 6 or more grammar or spelling mistakes, less than five sentences.¹